Registration Opens for the 2023 NAFCD and NBMDA Annual Convention

CHICAGO — Registration for the 2023 NAFCD + NBMDA Annual Convention is officially open. Building upon the success of last year's conference, NAFCD and NBMDA are excited to bring the distribution community together again in Colorado Springs, from November 14–16.

The 2023 NAFCD + NBMDA Annual Convention will unite the top distributors and suppliers for three days of professional development and relationship-building. During the event, attendees will also have the opportunity to learn from seasoned experts about the latest trends in marketing, leadership, distribution management, technology and economics through a stimulating menu of educational sessions.

Currently, suppliers are invited to reserve a tabletop booth. Tabletops provide an efficient and comfortable setting to establish new relationships and deepen existing trading partnerships. To make sure maximum levels of productivity are met, potential partners are encouraged to reach out to each other ahead of time to set up appointments for business meetings.

"In addition to tabletop meetings, there will be an assortment of other networking opportunities offered to attendees," said Kevin Gammonley, Executive Vice President of NAFCD and NBMDA. "As the distribution channel continues to change, we recognize the importance of giving the distribution community a chance to come together to navigate challenges, exchange ideas and share best practices."
